In the Matter of the Bar Order Against:

DAVID MARSHALL CRISP,

Respondent.

Case No. H-2342 FR

OAH No. 2009030774

PROPOSED DECISION

This matter was heard before Rebecca M. Westmore, Administrative Law Judge, Office of Administrative Hearings, State of California, on August 11, 2009, in Sacramento, California.

Michael B. Rich, Counsel, represented complainant the Real Estate Commissioner of the Department of Real Estate (department).

There was no appearance by or on behalf of David Marshall Crisp (respondent).

Evidence was received, the record was closed, and the matter was submitted on August 11, 2009. On August 31, 2009, the Office of Administrative Hearings issued an Order Reopening Record Re: Authority to Issue Bar Order. On September 1, 2009, complainant filed points and authorities in support of complainant's authority to issue a Bar Order pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 10087. Respondent did not submit a written brief in his behalf. The record was closed, and the matter was submitted on September 16, 2009.

ISSUE

The issue for determination in this matter is whether, under Business and Professions Code section 10087, which was enacted by the legislature on January 1, 2009, the department can issue an Order of Debarment against respondent, a real estate salesperson whose license was revoked on October 15, 2008.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

Procedural History

1. On October 15, 2008, the department adopted the proposed decision of an Administrative Law Judge, and revoked respondent's real estate salesperson license and licensing rights, based on his false and misleading representations of material facts to six (6) lenders, between 2005 and 2006, which induced said lenders to fund 23 mortgage purchases and refinance loans totaling over $10,800,000.00.
2. On January 15, 2009, complainant filed a Notice of Intention to Issue Bar Order and Bar Order, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 10087.
3. Respondent timely filed a Request for Hearing, pursuant to Government Code section 11506. The matter was set for an evidentiary hearing before an Administrative Law Judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings, an independent adjudicative agency of the State of California, pursuant to Government Code section 11500 et seq.
4. The Notice of Hearing was properly served on respondent at the address listed on respondent's Request for Hearing. The First Continued Notice of Hearing was properly served on respondent at the address provided by respondent on June 3, 2009, during his telephonic motion for continuance. Despite proper service of the Notice of Hearing and First Continued Notice of Hearing, respondent did not appear and was not otherwise represented at hearing. Upon proof of compliance with Government Code sections 11505 and 11509, the matter proceeded as a default hearing pursuant to Government Code section 11520.
5. On August 31, 2009, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued an Order Reopening Record Re: Authority to Issue Bar Order. In light of the revocation of respondent's licenses and licensing rights on October 15, 2008, the ALJ requested briefing regarding complainant's authority to issue a Bar Order against an unlicensed person who had not previously been ordered to desist and refrain from engaging in the business of real estate. On September 1, 2009, complainant filed points and authorities in support of complainant's authority to issue a Bar Order pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 10087. Respondent did not submit a written brief in his behalf.

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

Applicable Statute and Legislative Intent

1. Business and Professions Code section 10087, subdivision (a), provides that in addition to acting pursuant to the authority provided under sections 10086, 10176 and 10177, the commissioner may, after appropriate notice and opportunity for a hearing, by order, suspend, or bar from any position of employment, management, or control, for a period not exceeding 36 months, a real estate salesperson or real estate broker, or an unlicensed person issued an order under Section 10086, if the commissioner finds either of the following:

(1) That the suspension or bar is in the public interest and that the person has committed or caused a violation of this division or rule or order of the commissioner, which violation was either known or should have been known by the person committing or causing it or has caused material damage to the public.

(2) That the person has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to any crime, or has been held liable in any civil action by final judgment, or any administrative judgment by any public agency, if that crime or civil or administrative judgment involved any offense involving dishonesty, fraud, or deceit, or any other offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a person engaged in the real estate business in accordance with the provisions of this division.

2. The legislative intent for authorizing the commissioner to issue an Order of Debarment is to prevent real estate licensees, who have been disciplined by the department, from seeking employment with real estate-related companies that are regulated by departments other than the Department of Real Estate. (Stats.2008, c. 286 (S.B.1737), § 1.)

3. This statute applies to real estate salespersons, real estate brokers, or unlicensed persons issued an order pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 10086. Respondent is a person whose real estate salesperson license has been revoked. Even though his real estate salesperson license has been revoked, he is subject to the jurisdiction of the department by virtue of having been licensed and having rights of reinstatement, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 10171.3 and 10182, in conjunction with Government Code section 11522. Therefore, notwithstanding the revocation of respondent's real estate salesperson license and licensing rights on October 15, 2008, and until respondent has exercised his right to reinstatement, respondent is subject to the provisions of this statute.

Cause to Issue Bar Order

4. Respondent is subject to disbarment under Business and Professions Code section 10087, subdivision (a)(1), because he has violated the Real Estate Law by participating in fraudulent mortgage schemes and submitting false and misleading documentation to induce lenders to fund mortgage loans, as set forth in Factual Finding 1. In so doing, respondent caused material damage to the public. It is, therefore, in the public interest to bar respondent from any position of employment, management or control in any real estate-related business.¹

ORDER

Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 10087, respondent David Marshall Crisp is hereby barred, for a period of 36 months, from the following:

1. Holding any position of employment, management or control in a real estate business;
2. Participating in any business activity of a real estate salesperson or a real estate broker;
3. Engaging in any real estate-related business activity on the premises where a real estate salesperson or real estate broker is conducting business; and,
4. Participating in any real estate-related business activity of a finance lender, residential mortgage lender, bank, credit union, escrow company, title company, or underwritten title company.

DATED: September 25, 2009

REBECCA M. WESTMORE
Administrative Law Judge
Office of Administrative Hearings

¹ At hearing, complainant introduced evidence of civil actions pending, and default judgments entered, against respondent, subsequent to the revocation of his real estate licenses and licensing rights. This evidence was not alleged as grounds for complainant's Notice of Intent to Issue Bar Order and Bar Order, and therefore was not considered as a basis for this Proposed Decision.
