ORDER DENYING REINSTATEMENT OF LICENSE

Respondent.

On December 12, 1995, a Decision was rendered herein revoking the real estate salesperson license of Respondent.

On April 3, 2002, Respondent petitioned for reinstatement of said license and the Attorney General of the State of California has been given notice of the filing of the petition.

I have considered Respondent's petition and the evidence and arguments in support thereof. Respondent has failed to demonstrate to my satisfaction that Respondent has undergone sufficient rehabilitation to warrant the issuance to Respondent of an unrestricted real estate salesperson license, in that:

H

In the Decision which revoked Respondent's real estate salesperson license, there was a Determination of Issues made that there was cause to revoke Respondent's license pursuant to Business and Professions Code Sections 490 and 10177(b).

On or about May 2, 1994, Respondent was convicted of violating Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(g) (Conspiracy to Launder Money). Said crime was a felony involving moral turpitude and was substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a real estate licensee.

ΙI

Respondent's conviction has not been expunged or dismissed. This evidences lack of rehabilitation and is cause to deny Respondent's Petition Application pursuant to Section 2911(c), Title 10, Chapter 6, California Code of Regulations ("Regulations").

III

Respondent's has not shown significant or conscientious involvement in community or social programs. This evidences lack of rehabilitation and is cause to deny Respondent's Petition Application pursuant to Regulation 2911(1).

Respondent was interviewed by a Deputy Real Estate

Commissioner ("Deputy") as part of his petition application.

The Deputy asked Respondent about the facts leading to his conviction. Respondent stated that his broker was laundering money from drugs into his business and that he had not been aware that his broker was engaging in that activity. The broker apparently would take money from buyers (who were drug dealers) to help them to buy a house. The broker would deposit the money into a checking account in order to establish a paper trial.

Respondent had interaction with the buyers and was assumed to have been part of the money laundering scheme.

Respondent however, had entered a guilty plea to Conspiracy to Launder Money. His statements to the Deputy evidence a failure to take responsibility for the acts which led to his conviction. This evidences lack of rehabilitation and is cause to deny Respondent's petition pursuant to Regulation 2911(n)(1).

V

Due to the serious nature of the conduct which led to the revocation of Respondent's real estate salesperson license and the facts set forth in Paragraphs II, III and IV, a longer period of time is required to measure Respondent's rehabilitation.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that Respondent's petition for reinstatement of his real estate salesperson license is denied.

This Order shall become effective at 12 o'clock noon on February 25, 2003
