DECISION

The Proposed Decision dated January 24, 2002, of the Administrative Law Judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings, is hereby adopted as the Decision of the Real Estate Commissioner in the above-entitled matter.

The application for a real estate salesperson license is denied. There is no statutory restriction on when application may again be made for this license. If and when application is again made for this license, all competent evidence of rehabilitation presented by respondent will be considered by the Real Estate Commissioner. A copy of the Commissioner's Criteria of Rehabilitation is appended hereto for the information of respondent.

noon on This Decision shall become effective at 12 o'clock March 18, 2002

In the Matter of the Statement of Issues Against:

Case No. H-29074 LA

PRISCILLA BROWN,

OAH No. L2001060415

Respondent.

PROPOSED DECISION

On January 10, 2002, in Los Angeles, California, John D. Wagner, Administrative Law Judge, Office of Administrative Hearings, State of California, heard this matter.

David Edward Bruce, Real Estate Counsel, Department of Real Estate, represented complainant.

Respondent represented herself.

Evidence was received, the record was closed and the matter was submitted.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

- 1. Complainant Thomas McCrady made the Statement of Issues in his official capacity as a Deputy Real Estate Commissioner of the State of California.
- 2. On December 8, 2000, respondent applied to the Department of Real Estate of the State of California for a real estate salesperson license. Her application was dated October 15, 2000. She signed the application under penalty of perjury.
- 3. On July 28, 1975, in Los Angeles County, respondent was convicted on her plea of guilty of violating section 484 (petty theft) of the Penal Code. This crime was a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude. It involved the fraudulent taking of the personal property of another, and is substantially related to the qualification, functions or duties of a real estate salesperson. As of a result of this conviction, respondent was fined $65. The facts and circumstances surrounding this conviction are that respondent stole a pair of shoes from a retail store.

- 4. On February 18, 1986, in the Los Angeles County Superior Court, State of California, respondent was convicted on her plea of guilty of violating section 487.1 (Grand Theft) of the Penal Code. This crime was a felony involving moral turpitude. It involved the fraudulent obtaining of money belonging to another, an unlawful act intended to confer a financial benefit on respondent. It was substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a real estate salesperson. As a result of this conviction, respondent received a suspended imposition of sentence and was placed on three years of formal probation. The terms of her probation included restitution in the amount of $2,500. The facts and circumstances surrounding this conviction are that respondent received an illegal $8,000 "grant" arranged by a friend of respondent.
- Question 25 on respondent's application asked her if, "Have you ever been 5. convicted of any violation of law?" Respondent answered "No" to this question, although she knew of the convictions set forth above. Respondent's failure to reveal the above convictions in her application constitutes an attempt to procure a real estate license by fraud, misrepresentation or deceit or by making a material misstatement of fact. Respondent's explanations for this failure were not convincing. Her testimony that she believed she did not have to report the 1989 conviction for grand theft because it had been expunged contradicted other testimony that she had read the application, since the application expressly states that all convictions must be disclosed whether or not they were expunged. Respondent's testimony that she had forgotten about the petty theft conviction because it was 26 years ago, is not believable. Her testimony that she didn't read the application carefully and didn't read the "fine print", was contrary to other testimony that suggested that she did read the application and that she was not careless when she completed it. In view of respondent's failure to disclose the above convictions on her application, it cannot be found that she is rehabilitated with respect those convictions.

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

- 1. Grounds for denial of respondent's application for a real estate salesperson license was established pursuant to sections 480(a) and 10177(b) (convictions) of the Business and Professions Code ("Code"), by reason of Findings 3 and 4.
- 2. Said grounds were established for violation of sections 480(c) (knowing false statements on application) and 10177(a) (attempt to procure real estate license by fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, or misstatement) of said Code, by reason of Finding 5.

¹ Question 18 on the application asked respondent, "Have you used any other names (i.e., Maiden name, aka's, etc.)?" Respondent also answered this question, "No". However, her 1975 conviction for petty theft was in the name Shirley Bowens.

3. In view of the seriousness of Conclusion 2 and the fact that respondent's failure to reveal her convictions on her application indicate she is not yet rehabilitated, her application should be denied at this time.

BEFORE THE DEPARTMENT OF REAL ESTATE

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of PRISCILLA BROWN,

No. H- 29074 LA

STATEMENT OF ISSUES

Respondent.

The Complainant, Thomas McCrady, a Deputy Real Estate Commissioner of the State of California, for Statement of Issues against PRISCILLA BROWN (Respondent) aka Priscilla Marie Brown and Shirley Bowens is informed and alleges in his official capacity as follows:

Respondent made application to the Department of Real Estate of the State of California for a real estate salesperson license on or about December 8, 2000, under the Real Estate Law (Part 1 of Division 4 of the California Business and Professions Code) (Code).

In response to Question 25 of said license application, to wit: "Have you ever been convicted of any violation of law? (You may omit convictions for drunk driving, reckless driving, and minor traffic citations which do not constitute a misdemeanor or felony offense)." Respondent checked the box denoting "No". However, Respondent failed to disclose the convictions set forth in Paragraphs 3 and 4.

On May 8, 1986, in the Los Angeles County Superior Court, State of California, Respondent was convicted upon a guilty plea to one count of violating Section 487.1 of the California Penal Code (grand theft), a felony crime, which by its facts and circumstances involves moral turpitude and is substantially related under Section 2910, Chapter 6, Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations, to the qualifications, functions or duties of a real estate licensee. This conviction was dismissed pursuant to Penal Code Section 1203.4 on April 19, 1989.

On July 28, 1975, in the Inglewood Municipal Court,
State of California, Respondent was convicted upon a guilty plea to one count of violating Section 484 of the California Penal Code (petty theft), a misdemeanor crime, which by its facts and circumstances involves moral turpitude and is substantially related under Section 2910, Chapter 6, Title 10 of the California

Code of Regulations, to the qualifications, functions or duties of a real estate licensee.

5

Respondent's failure to reveal the convictions set forth in Paragraphs 3 and 4, in her application, constitutes an attempt to procure a real estate license by fraud, misrepresentation or deceit or by making a material misstatement of fact on her application, which is cause for denial of Respondent's application for a real estate salesperson's license under Code Sections 475(a), 480(c) and 10177(a).

The facts as alleged in Paragraphs 3 and 4, above, constitute cause for the denial of Respondent's application for a real estate license under Sections 480(a) and 10177(b) of the Code.

These proceedings are brought under the provisions of Section 10100, Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California and Sections 11500 through 11528 of the Government Code of the State of California.
