(CRIMINAL CONVICTION)

3.

On or about December 13, 2017, in the Superior Court of California, County of San Bernardino, case no. FWV17003767, Respondent was convicted of violating California Penal Code section 368(b)(1) (elder or dependent adult abuse), a felony. In part, Respondent was sentenced to serve three (3) years of formal probation, complete a 52-week domestic violence batterers program, not have any negative contact with the victim, and pay various fines and fees. This crime is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a real estate licensee under Section 2910, Title 10, Chapter 6, California Code of Regulations.

4.

The crime of which Respondent was convicted, as described above, constitutes cause under California Business and Professions Code sections 490 and 10177(b) for the suspension or revocation of the license and license rights of Respondent under the Real Estate Law.

(FAILURE TO REPORT CONVICTION)

5.

As of August 2, 2018, Respondent has failed to report the conviction, as described in Paragraph 3, above, to the Department of Real Estate.

6.

Respondent's failure to report the convictions as described in described in Paragraph 3, above, constitutes cause under California Business and Professions Code section 10186.2 for the suspension or revocation of the license and license rights of Respondent under the Real Estate Law.

(COSTS)

7.

California Business and Professions Code section 10106 provides, in pertinent part, that in any order issued in resolution of a disciplinary proceeding before the department, the Commissioner may request the administrative law judge to direct a licensee found to have committed a violation of this part to pay a sum not to exceed the reasonable costs of investigation and enforcement of the case.

WHEREFORE, Complainant prays that a hearing be conducted on the allegations of this Accusation and that upon proof thereof, a decision be rendered imposing disciplinary action against all licenses and/or license rights under the Real Estate Law (Part 1 of Division 4 of the California Business and Professions Code) of Respondent FREDERIK'A E. LAMBERT for the cost of investigation and enforcement as permitted by law, and for such other and further relief as may be proper under applicable provisions of law.

Dated at Los Angeles, California: 29 August, 2018.
